RE: Changes to Routes 55, 313, and 327

Please share the following information with your community.

ETS has developed a new routing in response to public feedback from residents and stakeholders in South Central Edmonton. In recent years, Routes 55, 313 and 327 has shown low ridership, and do not meet City Transit Service Standards to continue providing the current level of service. As a result, these routes are being redesigned to better serve higher demand areas determined by recent open house events and passenger surveys.

Starting September 5, 2017, service on Route 55 will be extended to McKernan and Belgravia during peak periods on weekdays. Service will operate every 30 to 60 minutes between Belgravia and Southgate Transit Centre. Route 55 will continue to service the neighbourhoods of Malmo and Lendrum. The extension of Route 55 will replace the current service on Route 327.

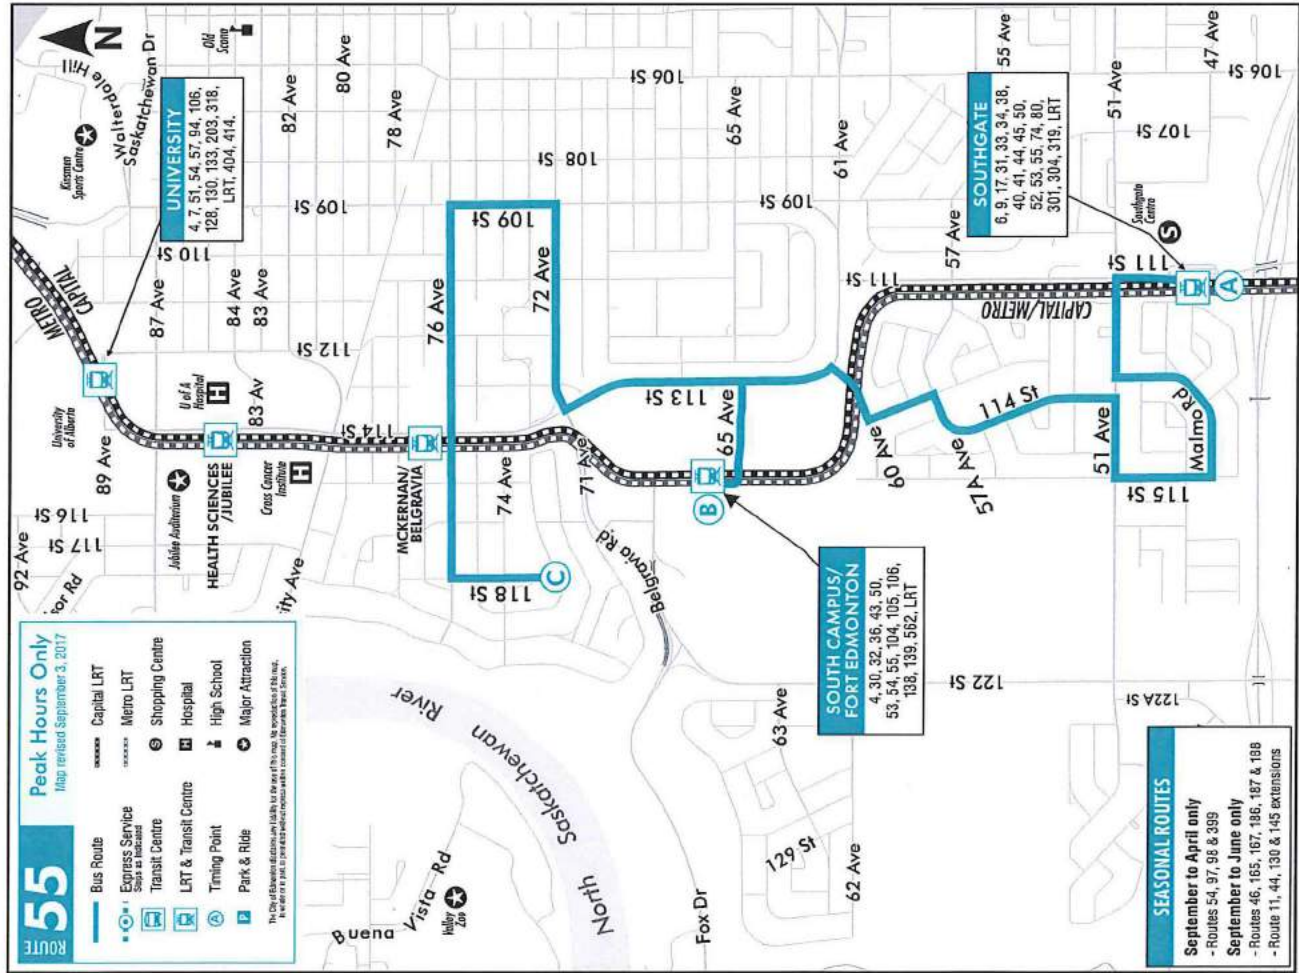

ETS will also introduce two new routes, Route 318 and 319, which will provide service in the following neighbourhoods: Malmo, Lendrum, Pleasantview, Allendale, Parkallen, Queen Alexandria, McKernan, Belgravia, Strathcona, Garneau, University and Windsor Park. These routes will operate every 60 minutes during weekday midday and Saturdays.

As a result of these changes, Routes 313 and 327 will be permanently cancelled.

By moving hours from underused trips to those in higher demand, ETS is improving service and offering better value for taxpayer dollars.

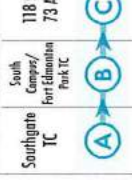

Please refer to the attached maps and schedules for more information.
